

I support the state of Indiana's no call list. If I'm the customer of a bank or other business entity, they can reach me by mail (the same way they send me everything that they deem to be important, such as bills or statements). I appreciate the calm of not constantly answering the phone to listen to a sales pitch that I'm not interested in. Thank you.